Matters Arising from previous minutes

No matters arising and minutes were approved.

Correspondence:

Registration with Information Commissioner's Office is being dealt with.

Fife Council – CC membership is now 6 rather than 8.

Fife Council – gritting on Fliskmillan Brae – more grit bins required and the water situation is needing looked at.

Community Police updates – email to check why updates are not being received.

Planning:

Brunton – Burnside – tree removal

Luthrie – 14 Broomhill - extension

Updates from other groups:

Flood group – Penny distributed the attached sheet. Mike has designed some flyers, cost approximately £50 - £70.

Roads/Speeding:

Speeding and noisy vehicles are still an issue through Luthrie and along the Wynd. 20mph speed limits have been approved for Luthrie and Brunton.

Carphin Farm:

Significant felling of most mature trees on Carphin Farm is planned and there is a lot of concern in the community. Laura to contact Stuart Paul for an update.

Any Other Business

Mike has heard from Willie Rennie that the A92 footpath will be maintained by Amey but no tarmac.

Next meetings: The next meetings are on Wednesday 3rd June 2026.
